

Falmouth Chamber of Commerce
2019 Annual Meeting Secretary's Report

President Michael Kasparian welcomed members and acknowledged the Annual Meeting and Award Dinner sponsor, Cape Cod Five. He also recognized Community Partner Atria Senior Living. After offering opening remarks and reviewing the agenda, he introduced Chairman of the Board Patty Erickson.

Chairman Erickson called the meeting to order and introduced the Board of Directors.

President Kasparian reviewed activities of the Chamber and reported on the current state of the Chamber touching upon advertising and marketing initiatives. He also reported statistics on the Visitors Center operations and tourism efforts for the year.

Chairman Erickson asked Director Janet Rocha to give the Secretary's Report and then asked for a motion to approve the minutes, which were seconded and approved.

Chairman Erickson then asked Director John Fulone to present the Treasurer's Report which was adopted as presented.

Chairman Erickson introduced Director Geoff Nickerson, Chair of the Nominating Committee who presented the ballot for Directors to the Board. Ami Milano and Frank Geishecker were nominated to a first three-year term. All three nominees were elected as Directors.

President Kasparian presented the year in review highlighting events, committee leadership, business networking activities, and reviewed the upcoming calendar of events.

Chairman Erickson thanked outgoing Director Geoff Nickerson for his six years of service.

Having completed her two-year term as Chairman, Patty Erickson introduced the new incoming Chairman John Fulone.

Chairman Fulone then formally called for the adjournment of the 105th Annual Meeting.

###